

DULLES REJECTS BIG 5 PEACE CONFERENCE

About Town

And Country
By TIMOTHY T.

IT HAPPENED HERE: Atty. W. W. Damron went down the stairs from his office to the street the other day. He saw a piece of cardboard on the sidewalk at the foot of the stairs and gave it a little kick as he walked on.

Soon he returned and the piece of cardboard was still there. He kicked it again and it turned over. And what did the judge see? His picture on a placard like candidates have tacked up on telephone and light poles.

The card was boosting Damron's candidacy for city judge back in 1916.

Damron picked it up, naturally, but where did it come from? And when you stop to think about it, there would be a 1916 card with one's face on it come from?

He took it upstairs and did some more wondering. Lots of wondering. Silent Wirt was perplexed.

But the perplexity did not last forever. Mrs. Ruby Nolen of the Horning hotel called him up and asked if he got the card with the picture on it. She said she had found it at the hotel among some political souvenirs of the late Uncle Bob Horning. She had taken it to his office, but finding the door locked, had placed it on the door and left.

It had blown down the steps.

SO DID THIS: A fellow was picked up the other day for drunken driving. He was about 30 miles from his home town and about four miles from Harrisburg, headed this way, with his home the other way.

Following his apprehension by the officers he made this comment to them: "Another five minutes and I'd have been home."

And do you know the definition of a living wage? It's a little more than you're making now.

And did you know that most people quit looking for work as soon as they find a job?

Passersby grinned at the newsboy at his corner stand, the sleeping kittens and the painstakingly lettered sign which read, "Two kittens, $25.00 each."

Next day the kittens were gone.

"Don't tell me you got that price for the kittens," a regular customer remarked.

"Sure did," the newsie replied. "I traded 'em for a $50.00 pup."

And once upon a time there was a man who sat up all night wondering where the sun went when it went down. And then it dawned on him.

Township School Trustee, Treasurer Posts Abolished

As a result of enactments by the Illinois General Assembly of 1953, township school trustees and township school treasurers will be abolished July 1, 1954, the beginning of the forthcoming fiscal year for school districts.

This information has been received here by R. Dale Wilson, county superintendent of schools, from Vernon L. Nickell, state superintendent of public instruction.

Wilson pointed out that on and after July 1, most of the functions presently performed by township boards of trustees will be assumed by the County Board of School Trustees.

Under the new legislation, township treasurers will be replaced by township treasurers appointed by boards of education and will be accountable directly to the school boards. One or more boards may appoint the same treasurer.

Board of Director districts composed of three members have no choice in appointing the new law. They must appoint the same treasurer who appointed the same treasurer.

11 Republicans In Race for U. S. Senate

Last Minute Filings Set Illinois Record

SPRINGFIELD (AP) — Eleven Republicans were lined up today for a record-breaking Illinois primary election fight for nomination to the U. S. Senate.

Six last-minute candidates Monday filed nominating petitions for the race, joining five GOP hopefuls who earlier entered the contest for the right to oppose Democratic Sen. Paul H. Douglas' bid for re-election.

A check of state election files showed that never in Illinois history have that many candidates run for the senatorial nomination. The high was set in 1932, when nine Democrats entered the primary for senator. For Republicans, the similar peak number is five.

Candidates who brought in petitions have until Saturday to withdraw. But it is virtually certain the GOP primary will set a record for the Republican Party, if not for both parties, despite withdrawals.

The six Republicans who filed petitions Monday before the 5 p. m. deadline passed were:

John B. Crane, Chicago, an economist.

Lar Daly, Chicago, a furniture maker.

Edgar M. Elbert, Maywood, former Lions International president.

Herbert F. Geisler, Chicago, a blind city alderman.

Edward Dunbar O'Brien, Chicago, a public relations man.

Austin L. Wyman, Glenview, president of the Chicago Crime Commission.

The five who previously filed were Edward A. Hayes, Chicago; Julius Klein, Chicago; Park Livingston, La Grange; Joseph T. Neek, Western Springs, and Deane Watson, Winnetka.

Douglas, a former University of Chicago economics professor, is unopposed in the Democratic primary election.

The same applies to two other Democrats seeking statewide office — Mark A. Peterman, Springfield, candidate for state superintendent of public instruction, and David F. Mallett, East St. Louis, who seeks election as state treasurer.

On the Republican primary ballot, Vernon L. Nickell, Champaign, has no opposition for nomination to his fourth term as state superintendent of public instruction.

A three-way race developed for the GOP state treasurer race between State Rep. Robert J. Branson, Centralia; Conrad E. Becker, Red Bud, and Warren E. Wright, Park Ridge. Becker and Wright are former treasurers.

All 25 Illinois congressmen filed petitions for renomination and interesting situations shaped up downstate.

In the 18th District, State Rep. Robert H. Allison entered the Republican primary against Congressman Harold H. Velde, chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee. Both are of Pekin.

In the 21st, former Congressman Edward H. Jenison, Paris, filed in the Republican primary. If he wins the nomination he will oppose incumbent Democrat Peter F. Mack Jr., Carlinville, next November. Mack defeated Jenison in the 1952 general election.

A former president of the Progressive Mine Workers of America was among the numerous candidates who filed for the Legislature. He is a George Baima, Bend, a candidate for Democratic nomination to the House in the 38th Senatorial District.

The 21st, former Congressman Edward H. Jenison, Paris, filed in the Republican primary. If he wins the nomination he will oppose incumbent Democrat Peter F. Mack Jr., Carlinville, next November. Mack defeated Jenison in the 1952 general election.

Battle Lines Drawn for County Primary Election in April

Democrats Complete Ticket in Final Day of Filings

The days of filing for office are over and the battle lines are drawn for the Republican and Democratic primaries in April.

Yesterday was the last filing date in the office of County Clerk Don B. Garrison here and the office of Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter at Springfield.

And there were last minute filings.

The Democratic party got its county ticket filled when Atty. Gen. Frank J. Murphy filed.

At Springfield the petitions of Dale H. Sullivan, 19 South Granger street, Harrisburg, were filed for representative from the 51st senatorial district on the Republican ticket.

At Harrisburg the petitions of Sheriff Robert May, Layman Jones, John H. L. Parish and Charles Dee Barrett, Democratic — Roy Ross Lane, James B. Woolard, Frank W. Bruce and William T. "Wee" Barrett.

County Clerk: Republican — Paul Hilliard, Verner E. Joyner, Herman Conover and Raymond "Red" Allen. Democratic — Don B. Garrison, Earl M. Dabney.

County Judge: Republican — Ralph W. Chesser. Democratic — Trafford Dennis.

County Treasurer: Republican — Paul Spangler. Democratic — Maynard Cannon.

School Superintendent: Republican — R. Dale Wilson. Democratic — C. Raymond "Pete" Gardner.

Senatorial Committeeman from Saline County: Republican — Kenneth C. Capel. Democratic — Ezra Heatherly.

A half dozen new filings yesterday put candidates in the race for precinct committeeman in every precinct of the county except a Democrat in Cottage. Each party elects a committeeman from all 34 precincts at the April primary.

The precinct committeeman filings:

Harrisburg 1: Democratic — Jennie Durham. Republican — Dave E. Evans.

Harrisburg 2: Democratic — Victor Mitchell. Republican — Everett Hess, Alonzo Beal.

Harrisburg 3: Democratic — Carl D. Beggs. Republican — Charles D. Barrett, M. W. Tavender.

Harrisburg 4: Democratic — Everett N. Snead. Republican — John W. Lockwood.

Candidates in 25th Congressional, 51st Districts

The complete list of candidates in the 25th congressional and 51st senatorial districts who have filed their petitions in Springfield, and the names in the order they will appear on the ballot unless withdrawn are as follows:

For Congress — Republicans: C. W. (Runt) Bishop, incumbent, Carterville, Ray J. Hawkins, Marion, Jack D. Quarant, Golconda, and Alfred Van Hoose, Cambria, Democrat: Kenneth J. Gray, West Frankfort.

State Committeeman — Republicans: Chas. J. Jean, Anna, W. K. Downen, West Frankfort. Democrat: L. Oard Sitter, Anna.

State Senator — Republicans: Glen O. Jones, Raleigh, Carl H. Jordan, McLeansboro. Democrat: No candidate.

State Representative — Republicans: Gordon E. Kerr, Brookport, W. O. Verhines, Vienna, Raymond Field, Carrier Mills, Dave E. Evans, Harrisburg, Dale H. Sullivan, Harrisburg. Democrat: Paul Powell, Vienna.

Lake Harrisburg Plans Receive Serious Blow

Bond Attorneys Doubt Legality of Special Election

Plans for the construction of proposed Lake Harrisburg have received a serious blow—so serious in fact that it may mean the end of the proposition.

The law firm of Chapman and Cutler, Chicago bond attorneys who are advising the bond house of Bares, Kindred and Company on the legal aspects of the transaction, have come up with an opinion that the city cannot legally call a special election to pass on the bond issue.

In a telegram to Scieral Thompson, city attorney and attorney for the city on the lake proposition, Chapman and Cutler declare that the city is proceeding under a section of the state laws that state when "more than 10 per cent but less than 25 per cent of the voters petition for a referendum that voting cannot take place until the next city election."

Harrisburg's next election is two years away.

This would seem to mean that 10 per cent of the voters can ask for a referendum, but it takes at least 25 per cent to qualify for a special election.

Confession Next Step

There were 652 signatures on the petition filed with the city requesting a referendum vote on the proposed $200,000 bond issue for lake building purposes. This number of signatures is about 100 more than ten per cent of the votes cast in the last city election for mayor and commissioners.

City officials are conferring with Chapman and Cutler today regarding the next step—if any—to take on the lake construction program.

Plans to take formal action to call an election on the bond issue was to have been taken at a meeting of the city council Monday evening, but the receipt of this telegram brought all action to a halt.

City officials point out that they cannot proceed without the approval of the Chicago law firm. The bond house will not go forward with the finance program unless given the "go" sign by Chapman and Cutler and unless city officials have assurance the money will be available there is no point in making plans for an election.

The only action at Monday evening's session was to approve an ordinance listing eight voting places for the city of Harrisburg.

The city usually has eight voting places, being organized into eight wards, however for the last city election the city was consolidated into one ward with all voting at the city hall.

Raymond Gardner In Race for County Sup't of Schools

Raymond "Pete" Gardner

C. Raymond Gardner, familiarly known as Raymond "Pete" Gardner, principal of the Galatia Community high school, stated today that he has filed in the Democratic primary election for the county office of superintendent of schools.

Mr. Gardner has been in school work for the past twelve years. He is a graduate of Eldorado Township high school and Southern Illinois university. He holds degrees in both Bachelor of Education and Master of Science.

He is a member of the School Masters club of Southern Illinois. Mr. Gardner's teaching experience includes terms at Harco elementary, Beulah Heights elementary, McLeansboro Township high school and Eldorado Township high school.

At McLeansboro and Eldorado, he was head basketball coach where he produced several outstanding teams. Mr. Gardner is a Mason and member of the Methodist church. While at Eldorado he was a member of the Rotary club and Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Gardner resides at Galatia with his wife and three children.

Evansville, Ind., Zoo Elephant with Short Temper Injures Her Handler

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — Kay, a killer elephant with a short memory and even shorter temper, was on trial for her life today among zoo fans of two generations.

The five-ton tusker, purchased with the pennies and nickels of zoo lovers, "forgot" her old friend, Zoo Director Roger F. McGraw, 45, Monday and almost smashed him against a brick wall.

In 1938 she killed a 17-year-old boy who worked at the Mesker Zoo part time, and she once injured a handler.

"So long as that elephant is there I'll never go back to the zoo," said a young professional man who contributed coins 25 years ago to help raise $2,750 to buy Kay.

Most small fry said they didn't want to see the zoo's oldest animal destroyed. A typical comment came from 8-year-old Jan Hartke, who said:

"I would take her back to the jungle and get another elephant." Zoo officials indicated privately they might order that pachyderm's execution if public opinion grew hot enough.

McGraw, who used to oil Kay's leathery skin to keep it from cracking and pared callouses from her pawlike feet, was in "very critical condition" at Deaconess Hospital where four specialists attended him.

The elephant hurled him against the brick wall with her trunk but was restrained from finishing him by a leg chain that kept her just out of reach.

McGraw had handled and trained her off and on for 20 years. Twice, when he placed her in the care of other trainers, she showed her anger. Once she injured Fred Sparks, her current handler, and another time she tore down a partition when McGraw took leave of absence from the zoo to join the Navy.

Henry Egli, an attendant who found McGraw writhing in pain in a corner of Kay's cage, said he believed she "forgot" her old friend as he swept out her stall, despite the old saw that an elephant never forgets.

Mr. Stanford was introduced by Tom Morgan, Saline county soil conservationist and a close friend of Mr. Stanford.

Endicott Gives Annual Report

Chairman A. A. Gholson presided at the meeting, which opened with singing led by Leighann Walker. The invocation by Fred H. Wasson followed.

Following the dinner, served by Eastern Star members, Ben Chaney, president, gave greetings from the Lions club and Mayor Freeman O'Keefe gave the address of welcome.

Paul Endicott, secretary-treasurer, who with Ewell Harris are the other members of the Soil Conservation district board of directors, gave the annual report which stated 107 additional farmers had been signed up in 1953, bringing to 382 the number of active co-operators.

The nominating committee which recommended the directors elected consisted of Robert DeNeal, Ivan Stone and Everett Porter.

Guests included O. D. Brissenden, assistant to the president of the Illinois Agricultural association.

21 POWs to Get Dishonorable Discharges

WASHINGTON (AP) — Twenty-one American GIs who chose communism in Korea faced dishonorable discharges today as Congress debated punishment of those who cooperated with the Reds but returned to freedom.

Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson ordered the Army to take the drastic action against the 21 war prisoners who elected to stay with the Reds after the Jan. 22 deadline for repatriation expired.

The action halted pay and benefits that have been building up for the 21 months from their remote locations in North Korea to the neutral "no man's land" of Korea between Communist and United Nations lines. But Wilson said if any of the men return to the United States they can petition the Army for a review of their case and the Army secretary could overturn his ruling.

The military, meanwhile, drew both congressional support and criticism in its action against a prisoner who changed his mind about staying with the Communists and another who confessed to "germ warfare" charges.

Three relatives of Cpl. Edward Dickinson, the 23-year-old Virginia mountain boy who changed his mind about communism and now faces possible court martial, are en route here from their remote Cracker's Neck, Va., home. They are his bride, Kate, a half-brother and a brother-in-law.

A spokesman said the "Army is ready to go" with a pre-trial hearing of the charges against Dickinson. A hearing will probably be held next week to determine if Dickinson must stand trial for charges that he had unlawfully "intercourse" with the enemy and tried to obtain favorable treatment from his captors to the "detriment" of fellow prisoners.

A Pentagon official said Wilson had personally taken Dickinson's case "under advisement."

The Marine Corps announced a board of inquiry will meet Feb. 16 to consider the "germ warfare confession" here from Col. Frank H. Schwable, Arlington, Va., while a prisoner. He repudiated the confession after his repatriation.

Fewer Soldiers to Be Sent to Korea

SEOUL (AP) — U. S. Army Secretary Robert Stevens said today that fewer American soldiers will be sent to Korea in the coming months.

Stevens said most infantry vacancies will be filled by troops from the 40th and 45th U. S. Divisions, which soon will be going home "on paper."

Accepts Russia Proposal to Discuss China

Secretary of State Replies to Demands Made by Molotov

BERLIN (AP) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles today rejected Soviet Russian demands for a Big Five world peace conference including Communist China.

But he accepted Soviet Foreign Minister Vyacheslav M. Molotov's proposed agenda for the Big Four foreign ministers' conference which would make a meeting with China its No. 1 item for discussion.

"The United States is willing to deal with and to dispose of" the item dealing with Red China, Dulles said, apparently meaning he would discuss it but warning in advance he would also reject it.

Point by point in a 27-minute speech, Dulles replied to the blast Monday in which Molotov demanded virtual Western capitulation to the Kremlin as the price for world peace.

He warned that by trying to keep Germany helpless, Russia was going back to the days of the Versailles peace conference and risking another world war.

Cannot Keep Germany Down

Expressing "profound disappointment" at Molotov's speech, Dulles said:

"Mr. Molotov evoked the spirit of vengeance and of hatred which marked the ill-fated treaty of Versailles."

Rejecting Soviet demands for the neutralization of Germany, he warned that the World War I Versailles treaty showed that a great country can not be kept down.

While he offered to "dispose of" the Big Five conference question, Dulles said:

"Germany is a matter which primarily concerns us here, and the sooner we can get to it, the better."

The German and Austrian treaties were the second and third items on Molotov's agenda.

Dulles branded as a "grotesque inversion of history" Molotov's threat that the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the European army treaty might force Russia to set up rival alliances.

Revive Bitterness

"It is said that today, nine years since the German armistice, one of the parties to the Yalta conference should attempt to revive the bitterness and the hatred of those days and the cruel decisions which that hatred and bitterness occasioned," Dulles said.

Turning to Molotov's attack on Western European defense plans Dulles said:

"The Soviet foreign minister suggested that the formation of a European or North Atlantic treaty military force might lead to the creation of a defensive alliance of European countries, thus splitting Europe into two opposing military groups of states."

"This is a gross inversion of history."

After World War II Western Europe was left "totally devoid of military strength," Dulles said. The Western nations, he said, depended on the peace pledges of the United Nations.

Russia's insistence on the acceptance of Red China as one of the "so-called five great powers" was "another disheartening aspect" of Molotov's speech, Dulles said.

Dulles termed Red China a "convicted aggressor."

"I would like to state here plainly and unequivocally what the Soviet foreign minister already knows—the United States will not agree to join in a five-power conference with the Chinese Communist aggressors for the purposes of dealing generally with peace of the world."

"Moreover, the United States rejects the Soviet concept that any so-called 'five great powers' have a right to rule the world and to determine the destinies of other nations."

"Undoubtedly, great power carries with it a great responsibility for promoting and protecting peace, but such power gives no right to dictate to smaller powers or to manage the affairs of the world."

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

He that findeth his life shall lose it; and he that loseth his life shall find it. — Mt. 16:25.

Men who live dedicated lives do not commit suicide. A surfered life is an unhappy life. It is not enough to be good, we must be good for something.

Pro-Communist Prisoners Stage Press Conference for UN Newsmen

PANMUNJOM (CP) — Pro-Communist prisoners staged a "press conference" today for a group of United Nations newsmen selected by the Communists.

The 347 prisoners, including 21 Americans and a Briton, marched from their compound on the northern side of the demilitarized zone to the "peace pagoda" in Panmunjom where the Korean armistice was signed.

The conference was arranged by Communist Correspondents Alan Winnington of the London Daily Worker, and Wilfred Burchett of the Paris newspaper L'Humanite, who specifically banned United Press reporters and photographers.

The United Press has been the object of frequent abuse by the Communist Propaganda. United Press correspondents frequently clashed in heated arguments with Winnington and Burchett when U.N. and Red correspondents were present.

Autobiography of Lindbergh Sold to Broadway Producer

NEW YORK (AP) — Charles A. Lindbergh's autobiography, "The Spirit of St. Louis," has been sold to Broadway producer Leland Hayward and Hollywood producer-director Billy Wilder for an estimated one million dollars.

George T. Bye, literary agent for Lindbergh, said Monday night the contracts had not been signed but "both sides are in complete agreement."

Lindbergh will get "a cash down payment and a percentage of the film's earnings which can bring the price to more than one million dollars" for the noted aviator's story of his transatlantic flight from New York to Paris in 1927.

Tongay Plans To Appeal 10-Year Sentence

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Russell Tongay's attorney today planned an appeal from the 10-year prison sentence Tongay received in connection with the death of his swimming star daughter.

The 36-year-old ex-Coast Guardsman was found guilty of manslaughter Monday. He was convicted of making his 5-year-old daughter, Kathy, perform a high-tower dive last May 6 which allegedly caused her death.

Kathy and her 9-year-old brother, Bubba, gained international fame as the "Aquatots" with their swimming feats which included long-distance jaunts in the Mississippi River.

Tongay was freed on $5,000 bond after several hours in jail and immediately went into seclusion. His slender blonde wife refused to see anyone today and the couple did not answer telephone calls at their home here.

It took the six-man circuit court jury, which included five fathers, only 52 minutes to return a guilty verdict and Judge Ben Willard fixed Tongay's sentence at 10 years at hard labor.

The sentence failed to shake Tongay's stoic calm. But Mrs. Tongay, who appeared as chief defense witness, wept.

Defense Attorney Louis Jopeway described the verdict "as a shock everyone was surprised." He indicated he would appeal the sentence and was granted four days in which to ready an appeal.

Healing Campaign In Fourth Week

The Hayne Healing campaign has entered its fourth week at the First Apostolic church on South Granger street.

The Rev. Louis Durfee, pastor, said that during the three weeks just completed many persons have been blessed by the Lord.

There are services nightly at 7:15 and everybody is welcome, Rev. Durfee said.

Alexander Rites at Eldorado Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Jesse Alexander, who died Sunday night at her home in Fairview addition of Eldorado, will be held Wednesday at 10 a. m. at the Martin funeral home. Rev. H. E. Mushegan of the Church of God will officiate and burial will be in Wolf Creek cemetery.

Her body will lie in state at the funeral home chapel until time for the service.

The jury, testified "It was as natural for Kathy to dive as for another child to walk around a pool. I knew everything the children were doing. I was very happy and proud."

Prosecution witnesses, including expert swimming instructors, had testified, however, that the blonde little girl never hit the water correctly while diving from the high tower.

Dr. Robert Poppiti of Miami told the court that the type of injury Kathy suffered — an autopsy disclosed she died of a ruptured intestine and complications — "was most likely due to some other trauma (blow) than from a dive—a kick, an auto accident or falling against a chair."

Tongay, a former swimming instructor, once sought permission to have Kathy and Bubba swim the English Channel but was turned down after a storm of protest.

DREW PEARSON Says: Sec. Wilson Blasts Navy's News Leak On A-Sub; Confidential Memo Belittles "Nautilus"; Admirals Fear Junking Of Surface Vessels.

WASHINGTON. — President Eisenhower picked up the early morning newspaper shortly before the launching of the atomic submarine Nautilus last week, and almost spilled his breakfast coffee.

What he read was a news report that the Nautilus was not battle-worthy, was merely a test, and in effect was not an important naval vessel at all.

The President was furious. In the first place, he considered the story false. Second, his wife Mamie was going to launch the Nautilus. Third, being experienced in the battle of Pentagon politics, he smelled a Navy inspired news leak.

So he telephoned Secretary of Defense Wilson.

Charlie Wilson is not the earl-riser that his boss in the White House is, and the President routed him out of bed. Summoning him to the phone, Ike made it clear to his secretary of defense that he didn't like the Navy belittling its own submarine at a time when the administration was building up confidence in the new weapons of the armed forces. Also he seriously doubted that the Navy's story had been cleared with the Atomic Energy Commission.

And as an afterthought, the President snorted: "Why the Navy even asked Mamie to christen her."

WILSON LECTURES

Admiral Lewis Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, also saw the news story and was fit to be tied. He is required to pass on all statements by any branch of the government pertaining to atomic energy, and he, too, phoned Secretary Wilson.

With two phone calls under his belt, one even before breakfast, the secretary of defense arrived at his office in a bad humor. Immediately he asked Undersecretary of the Navy Thomas Gates to have lunch with him — Secretary of the Navy Anderson then being out of town. Undersecretary of Defense Roger Kyes was also present, and after lunch a roomful of admirals and assistant secretaries were called in, including Admiral Lewis Parks, chief of Navy press relations.

The meeting, including the luncheon, lasted more than three hours.

Wilson first wanted to know why the news story had not been cleared with the Atomic Energy Commission. The admirals had no explanation. Furthermore, none of them admitted leaking the story.

What Wilson did not know was that the story had been leaked verbally by a junior Navy press officer.

The allegations that the Nautilus wasn't battle-worthy; that her torpedo tubes were added only as an afterthought; and that her delicate equipment would not work at high speeds, was prepared first by Commander Slade Cutter. Later it was put in a memorandum signed by Admiral Parks.

The memo was supposed to be confidential, but Wilson suspected it had been shown to the press. For he kept reading from it aloud and pointing to quotations in the press which were almost identical.

"It's a strange coincidence," he said, "that the language is so much alike."

At another point he asked: "Why belittle the Nautilus?"

REVOLUTIONIZING THE NAVY

What the secretary of defense knew, of course, was that the Nautilus is so fast it is likely to put surface vessels completely out of commission. She can cruise round the world underwater without coming up for air. She can run circles around a battleship and surpass the speed of many destroyers. In other words she can probably catch up with and sink the vessels that are supposed to sink her.

This confronts the admirals with the possibility of junking all non-atomic-powered surface ships in the future. In fact fifty vessels are being mothballed immediately.

Wilson also knew that the proposed airplane carrier, powered by atomic energy would have been so fast that no protecting vessels could keep up with her. A carrier is not supposed to move without a convoy of destroyers and light cruisers, but since the convoy could not possibly keep up with an atomic-powered carrier, the proposed atomic power for the new carrier has been temporarily scrapped.

This revolutionary development in naval warfare is why Wilson and Kyes have switched their emphasis to so-called push-button warfare, with emphasis on long-range rockets, A-bombs and bombers. Naturally some Navy and Army men are opposed.

NAVY DISCRIMINATION

At the secret conference, Secretary Wilson kept reading aloud from the Parks-Cutter memo. He read it over perhaps a half dozen times.

At one point in the discussion, the name of Admiral Hyman Rickover came up. Rickover is the father of the atomic sub and was blackballed for promotion by the Navy selection board, until this country published the fact that he was being discriminated against because of his religion.

However, the entire group of officers summoned before Wilson expressed nothing but praise for Rickover.

The meeting broke up with no decisive conclusions. But it's a safe prediction there will be no more Navy leaks—at least in the near future.

WASHINGTON WHIRL

Here's the Democrats' new slogan for this year's elections, for use especially in farm areas: "Vote Democratic in '54—the farm you save—may be your own."

So many G. I.'s have been railroaded in foreign courts that the Army will ask Congress for authority to hire lawyers to defend them. The difficulty is that in foreign countries G. I.'s can be jailed for offenses that may not be considered crimes in this country.

Vice President Nixon has explained privately to senators that President Eisenhower not only wants to strip convicted Communists of their citizenship, but to make it irrevocable.

Congratulations to Lieut. Col. George Bales, an Air Force fighter pilot, who painted scenes of the Korean war between missions. Now back in this country, he sold his paintings for a handsome profit and donated the money to Korean relief.

South Korean President Syngman Rhee heard about it and sent him a personal letter of thanks.

How Mercury's New 161-Horsepower Engine gives you a new measure of safety

If you'll get behind the wheel of a new 1954 Mercury and take it out on the open road, we think you'll find this new engine gives you the most instantly responsive power you've ever known. Even when you're cruising at normal highway speeds, you have instant acceleration that lets you pass another car and get back in the right-hand lane in a few safe seconds.

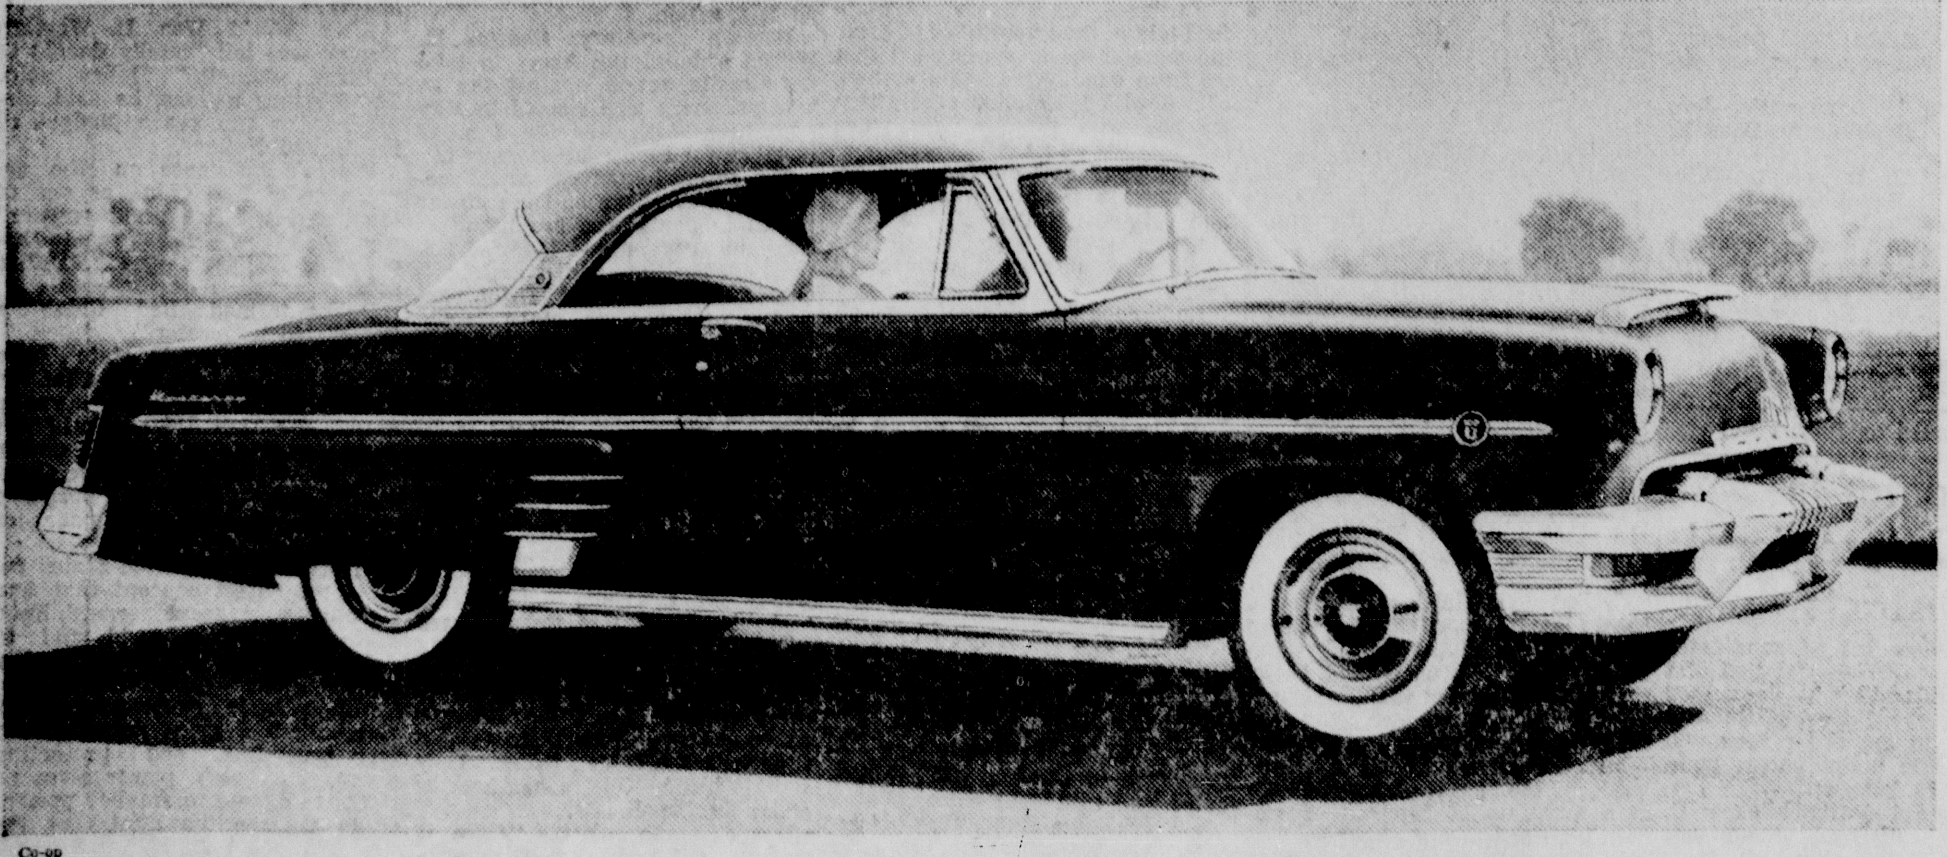

It's not just a matter of high horsepower. It's power that's instantly available because of a new Mercury development—a 4-barrel carburetor, with the two rear barrels vacuum-operated to cut in automatically when reserve power is needed for an extra margin of safety.

Mercury's new engine combines with new ball-joint front wheel suspension to give you a new kind of power that makes any driving easy. And you can add even more to Mercury's driving ease with a choice of 5 optional power features—like the 4-way power seat.

You'll find this new 1954 Mercury easier than ever on the eyes, with breath-taking new styling front and rear, inside and out. Easier on the pocketbook, too. You can get more miles per gallon than even Mercury offered before. Come in and try it! You'll find Mercury hard to resist—easy to own!

Social and Personal Items

Helen Jean Arbie Has Party For 9th Birthday

Helen Jean Arbie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Arbie, 1306 South Granger, celebrated her ninth birthday Saturday, Jan. 23, with a party.

She entertained her little friends with games and prizes were won by Terry Jones, Glen Ford, Albert Beal and Judy Brown. Favors of valentine paper cups filled with heart-shaped candy and refreshments of birthday cake, ice cream and soft drinks were served.

She received many nice gifts. Those present included Janice Mitchell, Sherry Aluzas, Judy Brown, Glen Ford, Albert Beal, Minnie Beal, Terry Jones, Janet Jones, Janette Evans, Gary Bennett and Winona English.

Mrs. Thomas Carpenter Hostess To Rainbow Workers Class

Mrs. Thomas Carpenter was hostess recently to the Rainbow Workers Sunday school class of the Dorrisville Baptist church. The teacher, Mrs. George Wilkinson, gave the devotion for the evening, reading from the 14th chapter of John.

During the brief business meeting, Mrs. Wanda Evans was elected vice-president. After the usual gift exchange Misses Barbara Reynolds and Wilma Jackson were in charge of games.

Others present were Mrs. Richard Sherrod, Mrs. J. W. Johnson, Mrs. Everett Estes, Mrs. Ben Sisk Jr., and two guests, Mrs. Marshall Faulkner, and Mrs. Frank Logsdon.

Mrs. Lizzie Meier of Carrier Mills is a patient at Lightner hospital where she underwent surgery today. She is in Room 10, on the second floor.

Mrs. E. T. Streich Speaks On Conservation at Woman's Club

The Harrisburg Woman's club met Monday afternoon at the library for a conservation program.

The meeting was opened with the singing of the song, "Home Sweet Home," and with the pledge of allegiance to the Flag by Mrs. E. B. Webster. Mrs. J. M. Hart then read the minutes which were approved, and Mrs. E. Bishop Hill read several communications.

Mrs. DeWitt Twente then mentioned the silver tea which is to be held Feb. 22 at the home of Mrs. Hudson Mudge. The tea is to be public. Mrs. Twente is chairman, and Mrs. Stanley Wilson is the co-chairman.

Music was furnished by Mrs. W. W. Chunn who sang three numbers, "Romance," "The Road To Kerry" and "Lady Moon." She was accompanied by her husband, W. W. Chunn, who is the music director at the Junior high school.

Mrs. L. B. Kimmell, chairman for the program, then presented Mrs. C. C. Porter who gave the meditation. She read a poem entitled "The Strength of Trees" and the hymn "Who Touches Earth With Beauty." She stated that she was very thankful for the Woman's club organization which had done so much toward conserving and restoring the national resources. She closed with prayer.

Mrs. E. T. Streich was the guest speaker for the afternoon. She gave an interesting talk about a farm that she and her husband had purchased about three years ago with the dream of converting it into a beautiful home. She told of the new additions to the place and of the pasture progress and about the many rose plants that were set out with the idea of substituting thick bushes for fences. She read the essay that she and her husband had written and entered into a conservation contest. She concluded her speech by showing the gold plaque that they had received from Governor William Stratton for being outstanding conservationists.

Standard Oil Company Has Party In Honor Of Cummins

A party, sponsored by the Standard Oil company, was held last week at the Kurto country club in honor of Herbert Cummins who recently retired after 31 years of service.

The company presented Mr. Cummins with a Lord Elgin wrist watch and a set of luggage. Mrs. Cummins also received a matching set of luggage along with flowers. After the chicken dinner that was served by the country club, two young girls from Eldorado entertained by playing the piano and singing.

M. E. Crow, manager from Evansville, Ind., and E. L. Mentzer, assistant manager, were present along with ten others from the Evansville, Ind., personal office.

Agents of southern Illinois and their wives were present, making 52 altogether.

First Christian Church J. O. Y. Class Meets

The J. O. Y. class of the First Christian church met Friday night for the monthly meeting at the home of Miss Carol Hughes.

The president, Miss Dorris McDermott, presided. The minutes were read by the secretary, Miss Marian Harlow. Dues were collected and old and new business was discussed.

After the business meeting games were played under the direction of the president. Prizes were awarded to Rev. Glen Daugherty and Miss Marian Harlow.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to Misses Dorris McDermott, Carol Hughes, Marian Harlow, Rev. and Mrs. Daugherty and to the following visitors: Jane Hughes, Martha Joyner, Shirley Turner and Mrs. Bud Hess.

The class will meet with Miss Dorris McDermott in February.

Chapter Z. P. E. O., Observes Founders' Day with Luncheon

Chapter Z. P. E. O., observed Founders' Day on Friday, Jan. 22, with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. N. A. Herrmann.

Mrs. Ray Durham and her refreshment committee served a lovely luncheon to the members which was followed by a regular business meeting and a play, presented by the entertainment committee.

The script, used in the observance was sent to the chapter by Mrs. Ida E. Stillwell, a charter member and former president of chapter Z. P. E. O., who now lives in Miami, Fla.

Mrs. Stillwell became state president of P. E. O. after she moved to Miami and is still active in P. E. O. work.

Mrs. John Cape and Mrs. F. M. Sullivan, who were dressed in appropriate costumes of the period, presented a beautiful candlelight ceremony and historical sketch of the P. E. O. Founders.

Mrs. J. A. Bottomley, program chairman, announced that the next meeting would be held on Friday, Feb. 12, at the home of Mrs. Bruce Polk.

North Willford W. M. U. Meets With Mrs. Belle Humphrey

Thursday night the North Willford Baptist W. M. U. met with Mrs. Belle Humphrey, with Mrs. Lillie Estes as assistant hostess. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. Estes and the topic for the lesson was "The World at Our Doorstep." All members took part. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Lula Kinser, and a reading by the president, Mrs. Estol Garrison.

Eight members were present with some others absent because of illness. Two members with birthdays in January were remembered with a shower of tea towels. They were Mrs. Regina Duke and Mrs. Lillie Estes.

Refreshments of pineapple fluff, chicken sandwiches, coffee and hot chocolate were served to the following: Mesdames Lula Kinser, Lillie Estes, Regina Duke, Belva Ragsdale, Grace Vinson, Catherine Gatwis and two guests, Darrell and Verneta Duke, and the hostess, Mrs. Belle Humphrey.

Beeson Approved To NLRB Despite Labor Opposition

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrats charged "steamroller" today as the Senate Labor Committee overrode union protests and approved the nomination of Albert C. Beeson to the National Labor Relations Board.

The vote was seven Republicans for the nomination to six Democrats against. It came shortly after CIO Secretary Treasurer James B. Carey joined United Mine Workers President John L. Lewis in opposing Beeson, who until recently was industrial relations vice president of the Food Machinery & Chemical Co.

Carey personally and Lewis in a telegram accused Beeson of anti-labor bias.

Sen. Herbert H. Lehman (D-N.Y.), who said he was speaking for other Democratic committee members, made the "steamroller" charge immediately after a short closed committee meeting at which the 7-6 vote was cast.

In its short secret session, held after Carey had completed his testimony, the committee unanimously approved the nomination of Robert O. Boyd to the Federal Mediation Board and Edward Steidle to the Coal Mine Safety Board.

Lewis had charged Beeson by his own testimony before the committee in the past had shown a "vengeful attitude toward labor which borders on hysterical malignancy."

Edward G. Robinson Explains Loan to House Investigator

WASHINGTON (AP)—Edward G. Robinson, the "tough guy" of stage and screen, was pictured today as a softy at heart when it comes to babies and medical bills.

He went before the House Un-American Activities Committee at a closed session Monday to explain his $300 loan to Louis J. Russell which played a part in Russell's ouster as the committee's $11,600-a-year chief investigator.

The committee promptly ended the investigation by giving Robinson a clean bill of health. It unanimously agreed that the actor, a frequent "friendly" witness before the committee, "in no way intended to influence any staff member for any improper favor" and made the loan only "for humanitarian reasons."

Committee members held to the opinion that Russell showed "atrociously bad judgment" in approaching a past witness for a personal loan.

Russell has said the loan was "open and above board" and was arranged after banks refused to lend him money needed to meet medical and other bills of his large family.

Salvage at $250,000 by United States armed forces in Germany saved American taxpayers almost $250,000 last year, the European command headquarters announced. The paper, more than 2,500 long tons, was recovered at Army and Air Force installations.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Find Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

NEW YORK, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to stop bleeding — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

Boy is Stabbed To Death by Classmate, 12

DETROIT (U.P.)—A 12-year-old boy was stabbed to death Monday night by a classmate who objected to the way the victim was guarding him during an intramural basketball game.

The victim, James Horton, grabbed a hunting knife from a companion and threw it at his fleeing assailant as he lay bleeding to death on the ground near Chaney School.

The Horton boy, with a gaping knife wound in his abdomen, was dead on arrival at Receiving Hospital. Police said his slayer, another 12-year-old whose name was withheld because he is a juvenile, admitted the knife attack.

"I stuck him and ran," police quoted the knife-wielder.

The attack was the latest in a recent series of juvenile rowdiness which led to a ban on night basketball games between public high school in Detroit. The ban was ordered by School Supt. Arthur Dondineau after the near-fatal ice pick stabbing of MacKenzie High School's star center, Ross De Boskey, 18, after a night game on Jan. 15.

De Boskey's attack was followed last week by two flare-ups of teenage gang wars, one after a parochial school basketball game and the other after an intramural game at an intermediate school.

Phillies Seek Hemus from Cards

PHILADELPHIA (U.P.)—The Philadelphia Phillies, concerned over the possibility of young Eddie Kazanski's loss to the armed forces, have offered a package deal in an effort to obtain shortstop Solly Hemus from the St. Louis Cardinals.

Manager Steve O'Neill of the Phillies, it was learned, has approved a transaction which would send veteran pitcher Jim Konstanty and rookie hurler Bob Greenwood plus two unidentified players to the Redbirds in exchange for the 29-year-old Hemus.

It was learned that the pot started to boil when Stanky approached O'Neill late last season and asked the Phillies if they needed infield help and indicating that he was willing to part with Hemus. O'Neill countered with the four-man package and a source close to the negotiations said last night that the offer still stands.

Looking AT Sports

By ED KIRKPATRICK

The long-awaited All-Saline county tournament is now only a few days off and the affair should be a classic. All four teams are veteran rivals, thus season records of the competing clubs are probably meaningless. The tourney is a blind-draw affair. In this type of tournament, the draw is held a few minutes before the opening game is scheduled to commence.

Hence, fans will find it necessary to show up early Friday to be assured of seeing their favorite team in action. The draw is slated for 6:30 Friday, and the first game will begin just as soon thereafter as possible. All four county teams will be in action both nights, as losers of the Friday evening scraps will play the consolation game Saturday night. Winners of the Friday games will, of course, meet in the championship encounter Saturday.

Reserved seat tickets have already gone on sale at Harrisburg Township high school on a first come, first serve basis. Mail and telephone orders are being accepted. Reserved seats are 85 cents a session. General admission tickets are 65 cents and students 35 cents a session.

If one were to consider previous meetings of the schools this year, Carrier Mills would probably come out rated as favorite. The Wildcats have defeated both Galatia and Harrisburg. Galatia has beaten Eldorado, and Harrisburg has also edged the Eagles. It is interesting to note that the schools with the smaller enrollments are supporting the best records.

However, one must take into consideration that Harrisburg and Eldorado are consistently meeting tougher competition than Carrier

Mills and Galatia.

Bob Farris' Galatia quintet has now won 13 games while losing only two. The Bearcats were impressive last week in winning their third straight Greater Egyptian conference tournament at Cave-in-Rock. Galatia's losses have been to Benton (62-69) and Carrier Mills (74-75).

The Bearcats have one of Southern Illinois' top point-producers in 6'3" Joe Upchurch. In 15 games, he has scored 324 points for a 21.6 average per fracas. His teammate, Bob Orto, has also been ringing the bell consistently. Orto, in 15 games, has scored 267 points for a 17.8 average. The Galatia captain's basket eye has improved in the last few games, and in the past seven he has averaged slightly more than 20 points a game.

The two were well out in front in the Greater Egyptian conference tournament scoring. Here are the top ten scorers in that meet.

Player: School	G	Tp	Avg.
Orto, Galatia	3	57	19
Upchurch, Galatia	3	55	18.3

We asked a party who viewed all of the GEC tournament games to list us his selections of an All-Tourney team. Here they are:

Bob Orto, Galatia.
Don Hise, Ridgway.
Joe Upchurch, Galatia.
Paul Kirk, Rosiclare.
Junior Hohler, Cave.
Honorable mention, Duane, Fowler and Clarida, Galatia; Sturgill, Ridgway; Spottsville, Newsum and Nolen, Shawneetown; Phil Holland, Pope Co.; Walters, Settlemyer and Haecker, Vienna; Sturgill, Cave; Lotton and Hale, Rosiclare; and Austin, Rush, Ellis and Davis, Brookport.

Bob Munday's Thompsonville cagers wound up with the No. 3 trophy in the Little Egyptian conference tournament last Friday night by defeating Valier, 85-66. The Tigers' shift, 129-pound forward—5' 7" Jim Logsdon—collected 31 points in the tiff. Thompsonville missed setting a new tournament single game scoring record by a basket. Despite being outlasted in the semifinals by Royalton, which incidentally went on to win the tourney, the Tigers scored more than 80 points in two of their three tournament games.

Pinckneyville Climbs to Third Place in Ratings; Mt. Vernon Drops to Fifth

SPRINGFIELD (U.P.)—La Grange maintained its lead as the top team in Illinois prep basketball today while Pinckneyville narrowed the gap on slipping second-place Moline.

La Grange grabbed all but one first place vote from the "Sweet Sixteen" coaches who rate the teams for United Press. La Grange won from Glenbard and Peoria Manual by lopsided scores during the week to push its record to 12-1.

Moline, dumped by Elgin 68-54 Saturday night, lost ground to Pinckneyville, which was idle. But the Maroons stayed in the second spot, eight points ahead of the Panthers.

Pinckneyville, climbed into the No. 3 rating vacated by Mount Vernon, which dropped to fifth after a 72-66 loss to Marion Friday. Quincy was picked as the state's fourth best club. The Blue Devils made their record 13-1 with a week-end win over Mattoon.

Centralia is Ninth
Edwardsville, despite a loss to Wood River, stayed in sixth position. The Tigers came back Saturday night to massacre Roxana 83-33.

Litchfield advanced from 9th to 7th. The Purple Panthers beat old rivals Taylorville and now boast a 15-2 mark. Centralia, although it won two games, dropped to No. 9.

Rockford East, winner over Joliet but two-point loser to Barrington, stayed in eighth place, just two positions ahead of Rockford West, up one place from 11th.

Once beaten Peoria Woodruff won two more games and moved from 12th to 11th. Cicero Morton, easy winner over a tough Waukegan club, was 12th.

Wood River came back into the

Few Changes In Ratings of Top 10 Teams

NEW YORK (U.P.)—Holy Cross regained a place among the United Press top 10 college basketball teams today during a lull in the schedule which left Kentucky, Indiana and Duquesne 1-2-3 for the fifth week in a row.

The Crusaders, who have won 13 of their first 14 games, moved back among the select group (in 10th place) amid a week of limited activity because of mid-season examinations in most colleges.

Of this week's top 10 teams, three did not play, while six others had only one game each.

As a result, the first five places in the ratings were occupied by the same teams as the previous week, with Oklahoma A and M and Western Kentucky following the "Big Three." Aside from Holy Cross' advance, the only other changes among the top 10 found California advancing to a tie for sixth place with Minnesota, and Notre Dame moving up one notch to eighth place, exchanging places with Kansas.

Kentucky Gains Ground
The 35 leading coaches who comprise the United Press Rating Board based their rankings on games played through Saturday night, Jan. 23.

Kentucky, which ran its undefeated string to 12 by beating Tennessee in its only game last week, gained ground on Indiana and Duquesne, which were idle. Coach Adolph Rupp's Wildcats attracted 19 first-place votes (four more than last week) and 321 points as they widened their lead over the Hoosiers from eight to 16 points.

Indiana (12-1) had nine first-place ballots (one less than last week) and 305 points, while Duquesne, undefeated in 15 games, had six first-place votes (two less than a week ago) and 283 points.

The Oklahoma Aggies (16-1) followed with 232 points, and Western Kentucky, unbeaten in 18 contests, had 168. The Hilltoppers were the only team among the top 10 that played two games last week.

Other Ratings
Minnesota (10-2) remained in sixth place but had to share the berth this week with California (14-2), both receiving 109 points. Notre Dame, which attracted the remaining first-place ballot, jumped one place to eighth with 83 points as it ran its record to 10-2; Kansas (8-3) dropped one place to ninth with 305 points, while Holy Cross advanced from a tie for 12th, replacing Louisiana among the top 10.

La Salle, with a 14-3 record, topped the second 10 group, only four points behind Holy Cross. LSU fell to 12th, followed in order by Wyoming, Duke, Iowa, Oklahoma City university, Oregon State, Texas, Bradley and North Carolina State.

Others among the 35 teams that received points in this week's ratings were Brigham Young, Navy, St. Louis, Niagara, Louisville, Illinois, Idaho, Santa Clara, Rice, UCLA, Dayton, Texas Tech, Connecticut, Seattle and Cornell.

Dairy Brands Split Two Games

The Harrisburg Dairy Brands, in action twice recently, split the two decisions.

Monday evening the local team played a team at New Burnside composed of players from Harrisburg, Carrier Mills and Stonefort. The Dairy Brands, with Homomon scoring 27 points, won by a score of 88-41.

Saturday night the Dairy Brands met a team composed of S. I. U. students in the Polio benefit game at Carrier Mills, with the college players the winner, 62-60.

Action was moving forward this week toward the construction of a new gymnasium at Equality high school, as announcement for sealed bids was made yesterday by School District No. 55 in Gallatin county.

Bids will be received by the school district until 7:30 p. m. (CST) on Feb. 11. At that time, bids will be opened and read. Ralph D. Brown, structural engineer of Harrisburg, has drawn up the plans and specifications for the proposed new building.

The Equality gymnasium was blown down last June 13 during a violent windstorm which swept through the entire area. The school received insurance which will partially cover the costs of the new structure.

Congress to Probe Economy

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—Congress is going to investigate the state of the nation's economy to see if there is any danger of a serious recession.

Chairman Jesse P. Wolcott (R-Mich.) said Monday that his Joint Congressional Economic Report Committee will open hearings on the problem Monday.

"There isn't any economic justification whatever for any of these mouthings of the prophets of doom," he said. "It is all politically-motivated and the hearings, I think, will show that."

The hearings will open with testimony from Cabinet officers and representatives of industry, labor and agriculture. They will come after the President sends his economic report to Congress Thursday.

General Discussion Period at Rotary

Rotarians held a general discussion period following their weekly dinner-meeting last night at the Masonic temple. A report on the Polio telethon program was given by Ed Brantley, co-chairman of the Rotary committee. Several other club matters were discussed, including a drive to obtain new members. A motion was made to extend to the Jaycee organization an invitation to hold a joint meeting with the Rotary in February.

Mothers' March On Polio Will Be Held Friday Night

The Mothers' March on Polio will be held Friday, Jan. 29, and Mrs. Ed Brantley, chairman of the Mothers' March, asks all who wish to give to the March of Dimes in the current campaign to turn on their porchlight that volunteer workers may call and collect their contribution.

The Mothers' March is held for one hour on a night in the last week of the March of Dimes campaign. A lighted porchlight is an indication of a willingness to contribute. The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has designated Jan. 29 as the national date for Mothers' Marches.

It is estimated that 80,000 March of Dimes volunteers are expected to aid in the porchlight solicitation. A. M. Hetherington, chairman of the March of Dimes campaign in Saline county, urges a prompt return on all March of Dimes cards that have been mailed out throughout the county.

Coffee Outlook Bleak for Consumers, Association Reports

NEW YORK (AP)—Housewives may be paying as much as $1.25 per pound for coffee by the end of February, the National Coffee Assn. of the United States reported today.

The outlook for the consumer is bleak and apparently will stay that way for some time to come, members of the association said here at a press conference.

"The National Coffee Assn. views with grave concern the recent steady increases in green coffee prices, the reason for which is a tight situation of supply brought on by drought and frost conditions in Brazil where about 50 per cent of

Gov't Hopes for Slowdown in Unemployment

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government held out hope today that the rise in unemployment is slowing down and will halt by mid-March except in a couple of industries. The Labor Department said a survey of employers in the nation's 149 major industrial centers indicates this is a distinct possibility.

From now until March, it predicted "little or no change" in employment levels in more than half the 149 centers; "slight to moderate" increases in one-third of the areas, and further "measurable" increases in unemployment in about 20 regions.

The ordnance, shipbuilding, communications equipment and tire industries appear to be headed for further job cutbacks through March, it said.

Government officials believe that total unemployment is now well over the 2,000,000 mark — higher than in January of the past two years but still well below the 4,600,000 peak of the 1949-50 recession. January and February usually are the months of highest unemployment. The spring pick-up in jobs usually shows up in March.

Nine More Areas
The results of the employers' survey were released with the department's announcement Monday that 20 of the major industrial centers and 31 smaller industrial areas now have "substantial" unemployment. This is nine more than in November, the department's last survey.

New major areas with "substantial" unemployment are Muskegon, Mich., and New Bedford, Mass. Seven smaller areas added to this list are Covington-Clifton Forge, Va.; Gadsden, Ala.; Indiana, Pa.; Ionia-Belding-Greenville, Mich.; La Follette-Jellico-Tazewell, Tenn.; Texarkana, Tex.-Ark.; and Webster, Mass.

The 79 major industrial centers with "moderate" unemployment represented an increase of 13.

The new areas in this category—3 to 6 per cent unemployment—include Detroit and Battle Creek, Mich.; Canton, Ohio; Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minn.; St. Louis, Mo.; Kansas City, Mo.-Kans.; Louisville, Ky.; Oklahoma City, Okla.; Fort Wayne, Ind.; Joliet, Ill.; Trenton and Perth Amboy, N. J.; Wilmington, Del., and Sacramento, Calif.

It held out little hope for a break in coffee prices before the 1955 Brazilian coffee crop begins to move to the roasters.

Pre-Registration Underway for SIU's Spring Term

Pre-registration for spring term classes at Southern Illinois university is now underway and will continue until Feb. 26, it was announced today.

Dr. Robert A. McGrath, registrar, advised students who are not attending winter term classes to contact the Admissions office before coming to the campus to register for the spring quarter.

Though the registrar's office is open daily from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. and until noon on Saturday to clear admissions and answer questions of prospective students, the registration center will be open only on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 1 p. m. to 4:30 p. m.

McGrath pointed out that students may wait until the first day of the spring session, March 22, to register but they can save considerable time by signing up for classes during the pre-registration period.
